Coordinating Council Lists Major City Problems

Court Order Puts Valuable Land on Sale

Nine Parcels in Village to be Sold at Auction Nov. 20

By DON KLOTZBUECHER

One of the most important Indian land sales in the history of the Village will be held Friday, November 20, when nine parcels of land will be offered at public auction to satisfy a court judgment totalling approximately $130,000.

The sale is being announced today by Sale Commissioner Eugene T. McGann, Rosemead attorney, in a legal advertisement in this issue of The Desert Sun. McGann was appointed by Judge William C. Mathes of the United States District Court, Southern District of California.

JUDGE MATHES ordered the sale of the valuable Indian land to satisfy a judgment for attorney's fees for Oliver O. Clark, Judge John W. Preston, Sr., and David Sallee for their representation a few years ago of Lee Arenas, Guadalupe Arenas (deceased) and Eleuterio Brown Arenas in establishing rights of allotments.

These three attorneys successfully established these three persons' right to the land they now hold, in a court battle which was carried all the way to the United States Supreme Court.

THE COURT CASE to satisfy the judgment was conducted by two suits, Eleuterio Brown Arenas and Lee Arenas, both plaintiffs, with the United States of America as defendant. Judge Mathes decided in favor of the plaintiffs following another long court battle.

Attorney judgments were approximately $80,000 for Lee Arenas and $50,000 for Eleuterio Brown Arenas including interest.

All the land to be sold is located in Sections 14 and 26, considered by many as containing some of the most valuable lands in the reservation.

VALUATION of the land as presented by the plaintiffs and accepted by the court is approximately $130,000.

Love thy neighbor.

Be courteous and kind.
But don't let just
One week suffice.
Keep friendliness in mind.

Besides Courtesy Week, it's also UN week and perhaps a dozen other weeks.

AMONG THE WEEKS coming up is National Popcorn week. Next week. . . Of course, with Cinemascope and the other 3-D deals in theaters, a lot of people are going to guard their popcorn when a hand reaches out from the screen. . . It'll also be National Girl Scout week and National Honey Week. . . The two go together. . . The local police force is running to Johnsons. . . Capt Orest Johnson has been there for a long time. . . Then there is E. G. Johnson who rides the motorbike and irks drivers who overpark. . . Last week they added a third Johnson, Bob, who joined the force Wednesday. . . Probably the theme song at the police station will be Glenn Miller's old "Johnson Rag."

REPORT OF Dr. A. G. Hoff on school attendance this week reveals how Palm Springs has come along in the last few years. . . When I first checked with Katherine Finch, then head of the local schools back in 1941, total enrollment was around 300. . . That was the whole works. . . Last week Dr. Hoff reported that present enrollment is more than 1600 and that the peak. . . To be reached in Spring. . . Is expected to top 1850. . . Last year it was 1760. . . Which is a 600 per cent growth in 11 years. . . And that year. . . 1941. . . the total assessment of the school district was around six million dollars. . . Now it is better than

Charter Plan Submitted to Supervisors

Supervisors are expected to consider a petition asking an election of freeholders to draw a charter for Riverside county when they meet today.

The petition was filed by County Association of Chambers of Commerce following a meeting at Banning last week.

Definite action on calling or refusing to call the election is not expected today as the petition asks for a public hearing on the plan first.

THE PETITION, drawn at the Banning meeting, states that the present county government, standard throughout the state which cannot be changed except by a charter form of government, is no longer efficient.

The association committee which filed the petition consisted of Clarence Washburn of Indio, Everett Crab of Elsinore and Thomas L. Clay of Pedley.

They pointed out that the proposal for a charter form of government was not the "desire of any particular district but the desire of the county's citizenry."

THE COMMITTEE said that the manager form of government, such as is in effect in Palm Springs, has considerable advantages for the county.

But, it added, the board of freeholders should not be committed in advance to any particular form of government.

EXTEND WESTERN WEEK TO SEVEN FULL DAYS

Western Week is going to be just that—both from a Western standpoint and including activities covering an entire week.

Original plans called for only a four-day celebration, but this program has now been expanded to cover the entire week, November 9 to 15 inclusive.

EVERYONE, Villagers and visitors alike, are requested to wear Western attire, with cowboy wranglers enforcing this rule. Donations collected from non-Western wear street offenders will be given to the Coordinating Youth Council of Palm Springs.

The program for each day follows:
Monday, November 9—Children's Western Pet show, with prizes awarded for the best Western-dressed pets. Large animals are excluded.

NOVEMBER 10—Night on the town with everyone asked to visit their favorite night spot, dressed in Western attire.

NOVEMBER 11—Western style show and luncheon at El Mirador Hotel. Styles (all ages) shown on horseback and foot.

NOVEMBER 12—Western cocktail party at Tennis Club, 4 p.m. Western night at the Doll House, with chuck wagon dinner.

NOVEMBER 13—Crowning of a King, dedication of Indian avenue, street dance, Kangaroo Court, free entertainment. Frank Bogert will be master of ceremonies.

NOVEMBER 14—Traditional parade at 2 p.m. During the remainder of the afternoon all are requested to patronize the merchants. Free Western dance at Los Compadres Club house, starting at 8:30 p.m.

NOVEMBER 15—Free Wild West show at the Polo Grounds.

Premiere for Telemeter in Palm Springs

World's Initial Showing Slated Here Next Month

The magic that is television will have some of its glamour peeled off with the advent of telemeter, the closed circuit television with a pay-as-you-see stellar program without the incessant interference of annoying commercials.

Amid klieg lights, ermine and mink-garbed celebrities escorted by equally famous men in evening wear, telemeter will be demonstrated for thousands right here in Palm Springs—the first such demonstration to take place in the world.

THE DEMONSTRATION scheduled to take place during the middle of November will have, among many other features, the simultaneously showing of a major studio preview at Earle Strebe's theater and portrayed on the screen of approximately 500 television sets right here in Palm Springs.

Carl Lesserman, president of International Telemeter corporation, in the Village this week, announced that a definite date of the demonstration would be announced in the Thursday's edition of The Desert Sun.

THE CLOSED CIRCUIT showing of the first motion picture preview to take place in the world in Palm Springs is only one of the many surprises in store for those persons who will be viewing their television screens during the pay-as-you-see demonstration. Lesserman declared.

He said that all the fanfare that is in attendance at a premiere in Hollywood will take place in Palm Springs, with announcers at microphones in the lobby of the theater while news cameramen and newspaper reporters representing some of the largest publications in the world are on hand to witness the event.

Several hundred thousand dollars have been poured into telemeter here to assure the success of the demonstration, it was said.

Misses Stop Driver Cited After Auto Rams Wall

Robert Edward Cleave of Los Angeles, was issued citations for driving without due caution and for violation of boulevard stop, following an accident at 10:26 p.m., Thursday, when he missed a stop sign at the intersection of El Segundo and Ramon road, and crashed broadside into a wall on the south side of Ramon road.

Only minor damage was caused to the 1937 model car. No damage was caused to the wall.

City and Tribal Council Unite on Mutual Plans

In a move to coordinate activities between the two groups on problems of mutual interest, Councilman Ted McKinney, chairman of the Indian Affairs committee of the council, attended the meeting of the Agua Caliente Tribal Council last week during such times as problems of interest to both were discussed.

The city council has also invited members of the Agua Caliente Tribal Council to attend regular city council meetings.

Judge Rules General's Dogs Must be Gone Within Month

The dogs have to be "gone" within 30 days.

That was the verdict of Judge Eugene Theriault Tuesday after finding "General" Michael Peter Alexandroff of Desert Hot Springs guilty of keeping too many dogs at his place and allowing them to roam at will, constituting a nuisance.

During the 30-day time limit given Alexandroff to dispose of his dogs or move them out of

Boy and Tire Both Deflated

The Tire Gets its Air Back but the Boy is Still Short his Four-Bits

And he didn't even collect his 50 cents! Police received a report of malicious mischief about 8 p.m., with a 19-year-old Banning youth telling of someone letting the air out of one of the tires on his car.

Officers located the small boy and he readily admitted the act.

To solve the case, and possibly to eliminate work for himself, the Banning youth said that he would not press charges if the other boy inflated the tire.

And everyone was happy, except the youth who had made himself added work and was still without any collection results.

LET'S GET ACQUAINTED THEME HERE THIS WEEK

Let's Get Acquainted! This is the greeting that all Villagers who meet the public will be wearing on their shirts and dresses this week, officially welcoming all visitors during Palm Springs Courtesy Week October 19 through 24.

Badges have been distributed by block captains, named by the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce. Any person not receiving badges may secure them from the Chamber office or from the block captains.

Listed on the "Let's Get Acquainted" card are the person's name and firm.

Two Courtesy Week talks are also scheduled, with Carl Miller, West Coast representative for the Wall Street Journal and director of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, speaking to Rotarians Wednesday noon, and Jimmy Shea, public relations director for Southern Pacific, addressing the Lions Club Thursday.

In charge of preparations for the Chamber of Commerce sponsored event are O. A. Torgerson, Adrian Rosen and Harry Paisley.

Early Action on Billboards Decided Upon

Future of Indian Land, Parking Also on Agenda

Elimination of billboards from Highway 111, the future of Indian-owned lands and off-street parking are major problems facing Palm Springs residents today, according to a consensus of approximately 40 persons attending the first Mayor's Coordinating Council meeting Friday noon at The Desert Inn.

Most of the civic and service clubs in the Village were represented at the session presided over by Mayor Florian Boyd. Meetings of the group will be held monthly.

Action on elimination of billboards was voted unanimously by the group, with each club to adopt a resolution opposing the roadway signs and sending this resolution to each county supervisor, asking for banning of signs by law.

This first positive action by the group was voted on a motion by Culver Nichols, president of the Palm Springs Realty Board.

THE BILLBOARD, Indian lands and off-street parking problems were selected by the group from nine projects listed by Mayor Boyd, and a tenth, a civic auditorium, mentioned by Joe Gamble, Chamber of Commerce director.

Other possible projects listed by the mayor were: construction of an eighteen-hole municipal golf course, buying of the airport, new city hall, buying of DeMuth park, realignment of Highway 111, retirement plan for city employees.

"I just don't know how all of these problems are going to be met," Mayor Boyd told the group. "We need the wisdom and guidance of a Solomon, and the resources of Fort Knox to solve all of our problems."

MAYOR BOYD pointed out to the group that the Coordinating Council would not have any legal status, but that it would have "tremendous" influence through the organizations represented.

Each person was asked to list the projects he considered most important, with those mentioned including signboards, buying of DeMuth Park, future of Indian lands, acquisition of land for a municipal golf course, civic auditorium, off-street parking.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Boyd, Councilmen Ted McKinney, Frank Miller and Jerry Sanborn; City Manager

HAVEN'T YOU WONDERED what sort of training and family-life background the person had who became disloyal to his country? When you find a man or a woman whose life seems to have been a failure — in business or at home — don't you wonder what was taught them in those formative years of childhood? If so, you likely believe — as I do — that love of country and faith in God, when instilled in youth by education and example, will give one a power which no danger nor discouragement can ever take away.

American youth of today will face a new world of opportunity and uncertainty, of marvels and evil forces, of challenges and trials. Our boys and girls need to know the historical reason for their freedom; they should be developing now the moral strength that is gained through faith and prayer. With this background and preparation they will face the future with confidence, determination and unswerving patriotism.

The fifty businessmen of Palm Springs who are backing the American Legion Post's "Back to God" movement here, realize the value of religious training in youth. They recognize the power of prayer when combined with faith. These men know that it will take a strong and enlightened citizen of tomorrow to keep America free.

Religious faith helps people meet all sorts of problems. It gives them needed self confidence. . . peace of mind. . . helps overcome worry. Faith frees one's mind from a defeatist attitude, equips one to meet sadness and discouragement without despair; it develops a radiant, happy spirit. Every youth is entitled to these benefits and will have them if given religious training.

"The responsibility of every mother and father is to raise children better than they are," said Fulton Lewis, Jr. in a letter to his son. With such a goal America will grow stronger with each generation — need not fear destruction from without or decay from within.

Thunderbird Club Opens Fourth Season Saturday

Saturday marked the opening of the fourth season for Thunderbird as a country club. With most of the home owners in residence the spacious lounges and dining room were well-filled and Frank Bogert had arranged special entertainment for the formal opening. Among those with reservations were: the Fred Karlens, Joe Froggatts, Phil Harris, Randolph Scotts, Edgar Bergens, Asa Calls, Wade Ambroses, Harry Weimars, Belmont San

Chef, Gordon McCraes, Barney Hinkles, Milt Hicks. MEMBERS WERE AMAZED and delighted with the many changes that have been made during the Summer months. Four new bungalows have been added providing accommodations for over 120 guests. The dining room front entrance has been enlarged and a complete new kitchen installed. The front entrance with a beautiful new circle driveway is now on the north side of the Club, off Thunderbird Country Club Drive.

The new front office, pro shop and lounge face the circle driveway which is planted with giant palms. Other improvements include new ladies' locker rooms, showers, and additional space in the men's locker rooms.

Most of the same personnel are returning to the Club with the addition of Bob Wasson as Club Manager and Gerhard Knaak as Executive Chef.

JIMMY HINES, the Pro, is back after a very successful season at the North Shore Country Club in Chicago. Eddie Sullivan the associate pro, has spent the Summer here working on his new golf buggy shed and pro shop. Helen Dettweiler, the teaching pro, will return to Thunderbird on November 1.

Irene Mulvey is back as maitre d' in the dining room, and Dorothy Boyer is in charge of reservations. The orchestra will be Denry Bernard's Trio from Lake Tahoe.

The first event of the season will be the Southern California Automobile Dealers Tournament which begins on Monday, October 19. The prizes will be displayed at the Thursday night dinner dance and the finals will be held at Thunderbird.

Two Supervisors at Park Board Session

Chairman William Jones of the county board of supervisors and Supervisor Roman Warren plan to attend the meeting of the state park commission and state fish and game commission at San Diego Thursday at which time state parks along the Colorado river at the eastern edge of the county will be discussed.

Supervisors have long urged the establishment of these state parks.

LA PETITE MARMITE — Pictured above are two superb continental chefs, Arthur H. Schloss and his wife, Marguerite. The husband, an expert in the preparation of German food, and Parisian Marguerite, with all the knowledge necessary in the preparation of delicious French food and pastries. The husband and wife open their new place at 198 South Palm Canyon drive after two years of operation of a concession in the Farmers Market.

La Petite Marmite Opens in New Location Wednesday

Arthur H. Schloss and his wife Marguerite Elli have two sharply defined accents when speaking the English language. The owners of La Petite Marmite (French for the Little Soup Kettle) their accents are figuratively extended into the type of food each prepares. Schloss is a past master in the preparation of those mouth watering German dishes and his wife Marguerite Elli is par excellence in the preparation of delicious and as equally appetizing French foods — and strangely enough, both work side by side in the same kitchen.

After two years in the Desert Farmers Market where both achieved a reputation among Villagers and visitors for their fine food, La Petite Marmite is now in new quarters located at 198 South Palm Canyon drive. The move was made necessary because a growing clientele made it impossible for them to properly serve their patrons at the concessionaire's booth.

The new establishment indicating the fine continental touch in decor and refreshingly charming, will open Wednesday at 5 p.m. for the evening meal, the first in the new quarters. The La Petite Marmite will comfortably seat 70 persons. In addition to the popular American dishes, La Petite Marmite will on Wednesday give with those aromatic scents steaming from French and German cookery.

Sweaters in Loot of Shoplifter

Two cases of shoplifting were reported to police Thursday and Friday, by one local store. In both cases, sweaters were taken, one on Thursday by a single woman, and on Friday four were taken by three women. Police warned all shop owners to be on the alert for shoplifters.

Another Deputy for Indio Station

Addition of another deputy sheriff to the substation at Indio which covers the unincorporated area from Palm Springs eastward, has been asked by Supervisor Homer Varner of this district.

The force at the Indio substation had been reduced by one when a deputy was assigned as bailiff for the new Indio superior court branch over which Judge Hilton H. McCabe of Palm Springs presides.

Jaloffs Open New Store in Village

Villagers, friends and patrons of Fae and Stan Jaloff are congratulating the couple on the second expansion move of the Beachcombers, operated by the husband and wife team.

The latest expansion was the opening of a new store at 276 North Palm Canyon drive. And, incidentally, this shop but much smaller, was first occupied by the Jaloffs when they first entered business in Palm Springs more than five years ago.

The other Beachcomber shop is situated at 187 South Palm Canyon drive.

"We attribute our success to the number of friends and patrons we have made since coming to Palm Springs," the Jaloffs declared. "Without their acceptance of the merchandise we stocked our shelves with during our early days here we would have packed up and gone back to where we came from early in our Village business careers."

The new shop on North Palm Canyon drive is a perfect Hawaiian setting. The decoration and motif was designed by Cliff and Lou Sawyer, who recently completed the interiors of the famed Luau, night club in Beverly Hills.

"Rather than hold the traditional 'open house' Mr. and Mrs. Jaloff said 'we are offering a discount of 25 per cent in purchase price of any selection until November 1.'"

School Board Plans Special Meeting on Construction

Trustees of the Palm Springs Unified School district will hold an adjourned meeting at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, November 5, to discuss future construction at Nellie Coffman school, and the inauguration of a work experience program at the high school which would enable students to work part-time and receive academic credits.

Both items were on the agenda at the October 15 meeting, but were held over for a special session because of the length of the meeting.

AT THE REGULAR meeting Thursday, the board heard reports of Dr. Arthur G. Hoff, schools superintendent, and Seamus Nunan, principal of Nellie Coffman school, dealing with teaching of fundamentals in the schools.

Nunan told of a program now under way, whereby special assistance is given students in spelling, grammar and arithmetic. Classes are scheduled three days a week for those students who have art as a two-day subject, and twice a week for students who chose music for an elective.

DR. HOFF REPORTED that continuous surveys in achievement in fundamentals are conducted in the schools, with teachers using the results to correct possible deficiencies.

In other action, the board approved use of the school facilities by the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 77, and the Scout Council, Palm Springs Desert Museum and the Palm Springs Stamp Club.

DHS Parents Hear of School Affairs

Principal Joe Kanya of Desert Hot Springs school discussed the role of parents as team-mates of teachers in the education of their children and a film "Learning Processes of Children" was shown when the Parent club of the DHS school met at a dinner Wednesday.

More than 50 were present.

CITY PLANNER W. G. Roesler today prints a map of a master street plan for Palm Springs. . . This being the first day of Courtesy Week, perhaps I shouldn't say this. . . But what we need for the city more than anything else is a master plan for the drivers. . . Well, maybe this traffic thing isn't anything new. . . Have among my treasures a four-page booklet issued by the New York police department. . . It gives traffic rules and what drivers should do and should not do. . . But it had nothing to do with automobiles. . . It was devoted to hackmen and dray drivers. . . the horse and buggy days. . . Issued in 1903. . . Had trouble then, too.

ORDINARILY, I like birds and am not too fond of cats. . . But right about now I am in the market looking for a good stuffed cat. . . I mean a dead one stuffed with whatever they stuff mounted animals with. . . I am going to put it in the center of the lawn. . . Then maybe that flock of pesky little birds which descends on the new grass whenever my back is turned will remain on the telephone wires. . . Mrs. G. suggests that I sit on the lawn myself. . . Make a good scarecrow, she intimated. . . But we've gotta get the paper out, you know. . . Why don't they (the birds) eat up the neighbor's lawns? (For shame—On Courtesy Week.) . . .

WESTERN WEEK is going to be a full week again. . . Seven days of fun. . . Am glad that I had a little hand in starting it but the main credit should go to Jimmy Cooper, Joe Butler, Hutch Moseley and Eddie Green. . . Butler suggested one time that the Village should not forget the West and that people ought to wear Western togs. . . (that sentiment was duly printed). . . Jimmy Cooper then wrote a letter about clicking boots on the sidewalks and colorful Western regalia which I was also glad to print. . . Green and Moseley took it up and. . . Western Week was under way. . . This year with Anita Haskell Jones and Dottie Higgins co-chairmen and giving the event a lot of vim and vigor and businessmen chipping in, looks like Western Week is going to return to its former high rating of fun and entertainment. . . Horace Greeley said "Go West." . . They say "Go Western."

AND don't forget your badge. . . Wear a genuine smile and keep it there.

Supervisors OK Desert Branch Court Changes

County Clerk Gordon A. Pequegnat's request for $175 to purchase a desk for a clerk in the county superior court branch at Indio was granted last week after he described the need for alterations in the court room which will cost $5000.

The $175 request was in addition to the $5000 voted for the court room. The county clerk said it had been overlooked in the original appropriation.

Pequegnat outlined the situation after Supervisor Sherman Lewis objected asking "Have they got gold door knobs down there? It's costing too much." Pequegnat said that the court room quarters were so crowded that witnesses had to jump over chairs to get to the witness box and that the judge's chair was wedged in so tight the judge couldn't get out of it after he managed to get into it.

Judge Hilton H. McCabe of Palm Springs is the judge of the court.

Pequegnat said that much of original $5000 went into the construction of a jury box.

SKIRTS STOLEN

I RISE TO REMARK

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

One of the first things I read in the papers in Switzerland, both French and British, was that the Emperor of Viet-Nam, Bao Dai, was away from his country, as was the Foreign Minister, and that the "opposition" had taken advantage of the fact to circulate a "petition," antagonistic to the French and the Emperor himself.

The next day's papers had a follow-up, saying the signers of the petition were busy explaining they hadn't known what it was they signed, for all the world like the United States, or the 29th District, for that matter. The next day, the news still reported that the Emperor's whereabouts were unknown, but that the Foreign Minister had gone home, and implied if he didn't straighten out the situation, there might be a new Foreign Minister.

WOULD YOU like to know where the Emperor was, and still is? Right here! He arrived at this little hotel, properly I suppose a "Chalet," the day after I did, and except for the fact that he is an Oriental, and for the number of people who are in his party, and someone always running to hold a red umbrella over him when it rains, or to bring up a chair when the poor guy wants to sit down, you wouldn't know him from the other guests.

Of course, we have the "gen darmes" and the secret police, rather unobtrusively, around the place. I think the easiest person in Europe to identify is a secret policeman, perhaps in the U. S. too. The Emperor's greatest enjoyment seems to be to drive around in his new model American car, with its green leather upholstery (make withheld until I can help the milk bottle fund at the Banning Kiwanis Club) and I have several times found him, sitting in the new car, listening to the radio, for all the world like a teen-age American. I use that simile advisedly, for I can assure you he was not listening to the political news.

I SUPPOSE, with Geneva only about 30 miles away, dignitaries are a dime a dozen. Several Frenchmen have commented to me, privately, that if they were in his position, they would be more worried, and would be on the way back to Viet-Nam, but "Majeste" as he is called here, is unperturbed, visibly at least. Yesterday a beautiful four motored plane buzzed the hotel, just over the rooftops, and I discovered it was his private plane. Today it took the two little "Princesses" (very nice youngsters) down to Cannes, where they go to school. Perhaps the Emperor was a little more concerned about affairs at home than he appeared to me; about which I commented in an earlier letter, yesterday the commanding general of the Viet-Nam armies arrived here, and today the Emperor took off for Cannes, with all his party. What a life!

Action on Council Salaries Delayed

Citizen's committee investigating remunerating city councilmen for their services Wednesday evening voted to defer a recommendation until further information on the subject as concerns other cities was secured from the League of California Cities and the National Institute of Municipal Officers.

The committee was named by Adrian Rosen, president of the Retail Merchants Association of Palm Springs, Inc., at the request of his group.

Members of the committee present said that case histories of other cities of the sixth class should be considered before a recommendation is made. Present were Harry Paisley, chairman; Dr. Charles Baldwin, Mrs. Virginia Gamble, Jim Norton, Stanley Jalloff, Adrian Rosen, Warren Slaughter and O. A. Torgerson.

Switchboard

Varner Says One Needed at Indio

Homer Varner, supervisor from the fourth district, last week urged installation of a telephone switchboard in the Administration building on the Fairgrounds at Indio which houses county branch offices.

He said that the cost for the balance of the fiscal year would approximate $2500 and that budgets of the various departments served would provide $110 of the cost leaving $1400 to be paid from the unappropriated county reserve fund.

Supervisors withheld decision for a week on the report.

Too Many Prisoners, Sheriff Asks Bus

There are too many prisoners in the Riverside county jail to be handled in automobiles when they are moved around.

So county supervisors will open bids soon on the purchase of a 20-passenger "security bus" for the use of Sheriff Joe Rice in transporting prisoners on a mass basis.

CATCH TWO MORE

School Board Plans Special Meeting on Construction

Trustees of the Palm Springs Unified School district will hold an adjourned meeting at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, November 5, to discuss future construction at Nellie Coffman school, and the inauguration of a work experience program at the high school which would enable students to work part-time and receive academic credits.

Both items were on the agenda at the October 15 meeting, but were held over for a special session because of the length of the meeting.

AT THE REGULAR meeting Thursday, the board heard reports of Dr. Arthur G. Hoff, schools superintendent, and Seamus Nunan, principal of Nellie Coffman school, dealing with teaching of fundamentals in the schools.

Nunan told of a program now under way, whereby special assistance is given students in spelling, grammar and arithmetic. Classes are scheduled three days a week for those students who have art as a two-day subject, and twice a week for students who chose music for an elective.

DR. HOFF REPORTED that continuous surveys in achievement in fundamentals are conducted in the schools, with teachers using the results to correct possible deficiencies.

In other action, the board approved use of the school facilities by the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 77, and the Scout Council, Palm Springs Desert Museum and the Palm Springs Stamp Club.

DHS Parents Hear of School Affairs

Principal Joe Kanya of Desert Hot Springs school discussed the role of parents as team-mates of teachers in the education of their children and a film "Learning Processes of Children" was shown when the Parent club of the DHS school met at a dinner Wednesday.

Paul Summers, program chairman, introduced Clare E. Ballagh, coach of the Indians who, in turn, introduced each player, reciting his experience, position and past performance.

Bob Johnson Now on Police Force

Bob Johnson, 596 South Indian avenue, has been named to the staff of the Palm Springs Police department, Chief John S. Davis announced.

Johnson started his duties as patrolman on Wednesday.

Scott Thompson, assistant coach, was also introduced.

In his talk, Summers told of the training for life after graduation and the value of team work and other lessons learned on the athletic field.

He also pledged the support of the Lions club to the team in its games this season.

President Harold West presided at the meeting.

NOW ON DISPLAY—Old meter wagon used about the turn of the century by Los Angeles Gas & Electric company was recently given to "Travel Town" in Los Angeles Griffith Park by Southern California Gas company. John Reifel, left, an employee of the gas company, found the wagon near Palm Springs four years ago. Following renovation, it was released to Charley Atkins, right, of the Los Angeles Park and Recreation department which runs Travel Town.

50-Year-Old Meter Wagon Found Near Here, on Display

Renovations to an old meter wagon, which was used by Los Angeles Gas and Electric company about the turn of the century and found abandoned near Palm Springs four years ago, have now been completed by the Southern California Gas company. Following an official presentation ceremony, the meter wagon is now on display at "Travel Town" in Los Angeles Griffith Park.

Early in the 20th century, the meter wagon was used by the Los Angeles Gas and Electric company for installing services and connecting gas meters in the Los Angeles metropolitan area. It was sold to a private party in 1909, the records show, when the company began to replace horse-drawn vehicles with automobiles and motorcycles.

The new owner evidently took the wagon to the Colorado Desert, where it was found abandoned by a gas company employee John Reifel, in 1949. The meter wagon was later purchased by the gas company from Paul Wilhelm of Thousand Palms Oasis and it was returned to Los Angeles for storage.

Display of the wagon will be made at the famous "Travel Town" in Griffith Park along with many other items of equipment widely used in Los Angeles during the latter years of the 19th century and the early days of the 20th century.

"Travel Town" is open to the public daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., without admission.

regional basis, the planning commission said.

Improvement of the present Highway 111 route through the city is contemplated with the abandonment of the by-pass idea.

THE PRESENT state highway should remain the master route of 111, and, as far as Palm Springs is concerned, efforts should be made to improve and widen the existing pavement on South Palm Canyon drive and on North Palm Canyon drive at the north end of the city to a 60 to 64 foot curbed pavement with the same general landscaping which now exists in the downtown area, it was explained.

The widening of Indian avenue and thus providing an adequate thoroughfare should relieve existing congestion in the downtown area of Palm Springs, the commission believes, but they added that "it is not our thinking to re-route the State Highway from Palm Canyon drive to Indian avenue but eventually to utilize Indian avenue for several blocks as an alternate to the downtown section of Palm Canyon."

"We FEEL that essentially Palm Canyon drive with its attractive architectural and scenic features is an integrated part of any future parkway into which the State Highway 111 may be developed from the date gardens of India," the commission said.

The planning commission expressed confidence that "satisfactory action will be taken provided it can prove to the city council and in turn to the State Highway Commission that the general public in Palm Springs favors the (highway) plan as outlined."

Regarding the development of major streets under city control, as illustrated on the map, the system is designed to provide a maximum of efficiency from a standpoint of movement of traffic, and at the same time is intended to delineate future neighborhoods and individual subdivisions areas for the purpose of properly integrating all new development into the existing development of Palm Springs.

THE CONTEMPLATED MAJOR thoroughfare plan is essentially based upon the existing "L-shape" pattern of Palm Canyon drive-Indian avenue and Highway 111, and a system of circumferential drives.

Circumferential systems outlined are:

1. Utilizing Racquet Club road and connecting Sections 2, 12, 13 and 24 using two existing old airport taxi strips in Section 13 as roadway base.
2. Utilizing Mesquite avenue and connecting Sections 24, 25 and 26—and joining the first circumferential system.
3. This circumferential drive connects with the first one at Racquet Club road and Via Monte Vista, and utilizes Alejo road east to the airport where two alternate drives are under consideration. It then travels in a southerly direction until it intercepts with an outer circumferential road along the Palm Canyon Channel and the eastern city limits. This outer drive is connected with San Raphael road at the north end of town.

PRINCIPAL EAST-WEST arteries as proposed by the commission are: Ramon road, McCallum Way, Tachevah or Tamark (alternate routes) and Vista Chino, Sunrise Way and Camino Real (Caballeros in Section 11) constitute important north-south arteries.

South Palm Canyon drive offers a slightly more difficult problem in the vicinity of DeMuth Park and two alternate solutions are under consideration, the commission said. One idea contemplates the extension of Palm Canyon drive due south, while the other proposes the realignment of a certain section of the existing Palm Canyon drive in the vicinity of Tahquitz Channel.

All proposals discussed by the commission will be presented to the public at the two public hearings mentioned, and then at a hearing before city council. The city planning department and commission have been preparing the plan since the adoption last season of the Master Land Use Plan.

INDIANS TRIP BANNING IN RCL GAME 13 TO 0

Coach Clare Ballagh's Indians did it again Friday night, rolling to their second straight victory of the season 13 to 0 over Banning.

This was a complete reversal of their 7 to 6 victory over Coachella last week scored on an intercepted pass, they racked up two touchdowns against the Broncos, had another called back, and were deterred in several others by penalties.

THE INDIANS started off the first time they had the ball, with Alvin Harrison setting up the TD by returning a Banning punt 47 yards to the 12. An off-side penalty and a run by Harrison moved the ball to the five, and Ralph Estrada then carried it over. John Laster missed on his extra point kick.

In the first part of the third period, Harrison broke away on his own 30 and went 70 yards to a touchdown, only to have the score and play nullified by a backfield-in-motion penalty.

HE REPEATED his spectacular performance in the fourth period, this time racing from the 50 yard stripe to a score. Three key blocks aided him on his way. The scoring drive was set up by an intercepted pass, also by Harrison, Ralph Estrada ran the extra point.

Closest Banning came to the Indian goal line was the Palm Springs 20.

Coach Ballagh picked out Harrison, Estrada and Vince Gonzales and the entire line as outstanding for the Indians.

IN OTHER GAMES Friday night, Hemet defeated Peris, 3 to 13; Coachella routed San Jacinto, 38 to 7, and Elsinore won over Beaumont, 32 to 7.

The Indians travel to Hemet next Friday night, with the game a crucial one in determining the final standings.

Plans for New Season Talked by Stamp Club

Plans for the coming season were discussed by members of the Palm Springs Stamp Club at the first meeting of the Fall season Wednesday evening in the Frances Stevens school cafeteria.

Six adults and 17 youngsters attended the initial session. All persons interested in stamp collecting are invited to join the club.

Naming of the club was discussed, and it was decided to select an official name at the next meeting Wednesday, October 23. Ann McGrew of Cathedral City was appointed secretary.

A new game was inaugurated, with all youngsters participating for a four-month period. Points will be awarded for attendance, identification contests for stamps, and games, and points will be taken away for mishandling stamps and misbehavior. Prizes will be awarded at the second meeting in January.

Plans were started for holding another stamp exhibit next March, similar to the one held by the club last year.

Touchdowns!

Ralph Estrada, who took over the ball after a running gain of 47 yards by Harrison, carried the ball 5 yards to score the first touchdown for the Indians. In the fourth quarter Estrada ran the extra point.

Alvin Harrison, during the fourth quarter took the ball on the 50 yard stripe to score the second touchdown to end the game in a 13 to 0 victory over Banning.

Fishermen Irk Snow Creekers

Residents of Snow Creek canyon Thursday told members of the county fish and game commission that hunters and fishermen were polluting the waters of the stream and littering the canyon with refuse. They asked that some controls be established.

There were approximately 30 cabin owners in the area and John A. Van Pelt, their spokesman, told the commission that their only source of water is from the stream and that it was being contaminated by hunters and fishermen.

Taxicabs

Regulation Sought by Supervisors

Ray Sullivan, county counsel, was asked by supervisors last week to investigate the possibilities of an ordinance regulating taxicabs in unincorporated areas of the county and report back to the board next week.

The matter had been brought up three weeks ago and tabled. It was revived last week by Supervisor Homer Varner. He said that unregulated taxicab operations outside municipalities worked a hardship on firms operating taxi companies within cities and under city regulations.

Varner also said that a county taxicab ordinance covering companies outside of cities would also aid in control of transportation of "wetbacks" through the county.

Village Businessmen Back Eleventh Western Week

The eleventh and traditional Annual Western Week this year can be credited solely to the Palm Springs businessmen, who came to the rescue of the Los Compadres with both enthusiasm and financial support.

In 1942, Hutch Moseley, then club president of Los Compadres, together with Joe Butler, R. F. (Phat) Graettinger of The Desert Sun and Eddie Green of B Bar H Ranch dreamed up and staged the first event. Since then the Los Compadres have on their own financed and supported it throughout the years.

With the recent accumulation of a club house, its expenses and responsibilities, the club's financial position has not permitted much outside participation, so consequently Western Week suffered. Most recently the clubhouse fire and efforts to restore it has taxed the club to such an extent that the financing of Western Week seemed an impossibility. A business meeting was held to determine whether or not Western Week should be dropped completely. The outcome of this meeting resulted in a decision to place the matter before the community's businessmen and ask their opinion.

Anita Haskell Jones, co-chairman of the proposed Western Week of 1953, armed with a letter from club president, Jimmy Cooper, took over the task.

The result of this survey was

Wide Screen is Now Installed at Village Theater

Owing to unexpected structural difficulties encountered at the Plaza it was found necessary at the last minute to change the installation of the wide screen from that theater to the Village-Palm Springs theater, Earle Strebe said Friday.

First picture shown on the wide screen at the Village Friday night was "The Big Heat" starring Glenn Ford and Gloria Graham.

It was the first time the wide screen was used in Palm Springs but all pictures there hereafter will be on wide screen.

The magnaglow astrolite screen has been installed and stereophonic sound which brings the music and dialogue from all around instead of just from the screen, will be installed soon.

First real showing of Cinemascope in Palm Springs will be at the Village Thanksgiving week when Strebe hopes to bring the noted picture, "The Robe" to the Village-Palm Springs theater.

He plans to bring all of the Cinemascope pictures to the Village this season.

Say Solution of Flood Problem Still in Future

Coachella Valley County Water district board of directors, meeting last week, were told by Ted Buck, president, that a compromise plan to solve the flood problem below Palm Canyon is now being worked out.

Owners of the property to be protected are studying the program. Buck said the new plan will be more satisfactory to the water district from a financial standpoint. The earlier plan called for the CVCWD to pay about $80,000.

Attorney Earl Redwine told the board that the district is now paying about $70,000 annually for flood protection and that the Palm Canyon plan would double its tax rate.

The new plan was submitted by F. N. Cronholm, flood engineer. Both Buck and Redwine denied the district was opposed

(THE LITTLE SOUP KETTLE)

With most of the Village's major entertainment spots open at week's end . . . Palm Springs is just about ready to throw away the key . . . and offer an unreserved welcome to smog, rain and cold refugees and even Floridians . . . who come for fun in the sun . . .

With so many openings . . . it has been a hectic week for those valorous ones . . . who try not to miss any of them . . .

Bud Bechtold came up with the suggestion that everything should open simultaneously . . . so we could tell the world "Palm Springs is Open" . . . It has marvelous publicity possibilities . . . but I just don't think I'd have the stamina . . . Fun's fun but . . . Four in one night is just about my limit . . .

A New Glow

There's a new glow to El Mirador this season . . . and Villagers who streamed through the gates Wednesday were much impressed with the changes that have been made during the Summer . . . The former Supper Club has been transformed into the smart new Kiva Club . . . with colorful table tops picking up the colors in the Indian murals . . . The space around the pool area has been tripled . . . this year should accommodate the crowds that gather for aquatic events in El Mirador's pool . . .

The biggest change of course, is in El Mirador Room . . . which has absorbed the former Garden Room . . . There's a feeling of spaciousness and quiet luxury . . . and just looking at it you know it will be the scene of fabulous parties and entertainment . . . Beauty spot at the entrance to the diningroom was a charmingly decorated circular table . . . laid with a pale rose cloth, over a floor-length cover of diagonally-striped rose and white . . . A mass of pale pink carnations . . . two black and gold Chinese dogs . . . and bowls of exotic fruits . . . sparkled in the twinkling light of dozens of altar candles in glass cups set in twisted wrought iron holders . . . at different levels . . .

The Starlight Patio was a scene of hospitality . . . where light refreshments were served to the visitors . . .

Here from Chicago to join her husband for the Winter . . . and assisting in greeting El Mirador's guests . . . was Mrs. Robert W. Bonesteel . . . a charming and gracious brunette . . . Congratulating Manager Rudi Sidler on the start of a new season were Percy and Maxine Whiteside . . . Maxine was carrying one of those interesting little gold bags that are open at the top . . . and we were talking about the Mid-Western woman who received one of them as a gift from Palm Springs . . . and wrote a "thank you note" . . . for the lovely planter . . . Zaddie Bunker was there and looking very "grand dame" in a pink dress with matching jacket . . .

Waltah Clarke was busy in his new Hawaiian shop . . . which is located on the right at the entrance to the pool area . . .

At the Beachcomber

Opening night at Don the Beachcomber . . . found that glamour spot crowded all evening . . . Sunny Sund, in her Queen's Chair, greeted her friends . . . and Pat O'Dea was down from Hollywood to join Roy Bradley and Eddie King, welcoming the arriving guests . . . Diners stirred navy grogs with frozen swizzle sticks and attacked their food with chopsticks . . . We had all those delightful hors d'oeuvres . . . and when the boy came around with the plate of hot, rolled towels . . . it inspired the story about the woman who tried to eat one once . . . That isn't quite as strange as it may seem as they really look like cute little rolls in the subdued lighting . . .

There were dozens of people you know . . . at one table the Russell Wades, the Ray Corlisses, George Cameron and Miss Yole Napier of Rome, Italy . . . At another celebrating Mrs. Hinkle's birthday were Ralph and Nancy Chaffee Kiner, the Barney Hinkles, Harry Darts and Bill Boggess . . . Bess Bender (looking stunning in black that accentuated her dark eyes and hair) was with the Bill Irvings, Grace Pope and Eleanor Kane, with Ken Herman and Grace's son Alex Shields . . . The Dick Edwards with the Norm Phillips . . .

Bud Bechtold (manager of the Hollywood Don the Beachcomber) and his lovely wife had Mr. and Mrs. Fred (Whitey) Johnson as their guests . . . Whitey makes Mystic Foam (that household miracle worker) and was getting some golfing tips from Bruce McCormick . . . Mrs. Bechtold told me she had seen the press showing of "The Living Desert" at the Disney studios . . . and that it is terrific . . . The Charles Beckers were among the diners . . . I noted the Walter Glatters . . . Sol Alessandros . . . Arnold Rumwell . . . the Kenneth DuBoses . . . Al Weingartens . . . and there were many, many more . . .

Saddle and Sirloin

They were still pouring in . . .

when we moved on to Saddle and Sirloin . . . where Dave Lyons and his attractive wife again welcomed Saddle and Sirloin devotees as a new year starts . . . Among the larger dinner parties were those given by the D. B. Carlins . . . Pete Sheptenko . . . Leo Reardon was there . . . the Ray Lusby's . . . the Bill Waldrons . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles Valentino . . . Leon Pach . . . the Al Lauries . . . the Milt Wynets of Alhambra . . . Esther Gilbert . . . Irene Foldes and party . . . Mr. and Mrs. Austin McManus . . . and many more . . .

Opening Night

Among opening night diners at El Mirador Thursday evening were . . . the William Tacketts . . . the Sam Taylors and Lee Bering . . . Ed and Millie Houghton, Rosalyn Danforth and Mrs. Clarence Saunders of Pontiac, Michigan . . . the Bob Bonesteels . . . and an all-women party of Dorothy Gazda, Babe Churchill, Norma Pagano and Joan McManus . . .

All of these were in the South Pacific Room later . . . to welcome back George Kainapau and his Island Serenaders . . . Ned and Joann Crawford were there . . . and told me The Ranch opens next Thursday evening . . . Connie King was there with a party . . . and Eddie Davidson dropped in . . . and lots of others who have been mentioned other places . . . and were making the rounds . . . The music was just as divine as you remember it and the South Pacific Room will be a popular gathering place again this season . . .

At Charlie's

We reached the Racquet Club late in the evening . . . and most of the people there have been named already . . . the Beachcomber crowd was there . . . and El Mirador . . .

The Monte Herberths and the A. R. Simons were a foursome dining there . . . and Elsinore Machris (who has opened her home here) was there with her fiancé Harold Maundrell and Dorothy Gray . . . Carl Lesserman hosted a group of Telemeter men . . . Jack and Helen Kenaston were with Al and Nellis Hunt . . . Others . . . Mary Jane Hicks and Peggy Bull . . . Edwin Silverman . . .

That beautiful red-head Rhonda Fleming was there with her husband Dr. Lew Morrill . . . They stayed for the week-end . . . and haunted the tennis courts . . .

Charles and Virginia Farrell arrived Thursday afternoon . . . to be on hand for the opening . . . and a special guest was Lt. Commander Henry Roth, USN, Retired, who was a CPO on the Hornet with Charlie . . . They had a wonderful time reminiscing about the continuous gin rummy game . . . and how their scores covered the walls of a certain room aboard ship . . .

The Tennis Club

It was a perfect Palm Springs evening . . . and the lower terrace at the Tennis Club was an oasis of light in the night . . . High over the hill a cloud-befogged moon peered down on the festivities . . . The oval pool glowed like a living opal . . . lights in the tops of the graceful palm trees added new drama to the romantic scene . . . and the bougainvillea that is a Tennis Club insignia was a blaze of glory . . .

Opening night was a sell-out and the tables under the trees were well-filled . . . The party got off to a late start . . . because of the tardy arrival of those who attended Helen Lloyd's cocktail party first . . .

Colorful Setting for Gay Hawaiian Party

Flaming luau torches lit the way for arriving guests at the Hawaiian Garden Party given by the American Association of University Women Tuesday night at the home of their president, Mrs. Paul Summit. Special guests were prospective members.

The eighty-five guests were seated at small tables set up in the sunken garden in the back of the Summit home. Small altar candles on each table, made flickering lights and the floodlighted pepper tree and citrus trees, and hedge of oleanders made a picturesque setting.

As a welcoming gesture, each guest received a lei that was placed around her neck by Darleen Moxon, who was in Hawaiian garb. An upside down cake, topped with melon balls, was served with coffee.

Linda Boyle, daughter of the Johnny Boyles, danced two of the beautiful island dances.

The Leonetti School of Charm presented a style show under the direction of Miss Charlesie Harrison, assisted by Miss Cynthia Tucker.

Modeling imported clothes from the Beachcomber, were Sandra Brott, Carol Cameron, Mickey McGraw, Joan Cameron and Mary Paul.

Decorations and food were in charge of Helen Peterson and Angie Brennan.

Thrills and Chills Mark Spook Party

Thrills and chills greeted the junior high school crowd that gathered for a Halloween party Friday night at the J. E. Ellison home at 535 South Calla Santa Rosa.

The guests, friends of Donavie and Jacqueline, were asked to dress "as a song" and when they arrived each had to act out the name of the song she represented.

There was a dart game with balloons, but the big event that had the girls shrieking with laughter was the Fun House. Typical hazards and shocks were the bedsprings, which the blindfolded guests were led across, the "dead man" with grapes for eyes and wet gloves for hands, and the illuminated "ghost."

After an hilarious evening the hostesses, Mrs. Ellison and Mrs. A. Belden Crist served refreshments of hot chocolate and pumpkin pie, topped with whipped cream.

Guests were: Madelyn Jalof, Betty Perez, Shirley Andreas, Wendy Kahler, Jerry Ann Luke,

School Growth to Date, Exceeds Top Estimates

Enrollment in schools in the Palm Springs Unified School district continues to exceed expectations, and peak attendance for the 1953-54 school year is now expected to be 1850, Dr. Arthur Hoff, schools superintendent, reported this week.

Anticipated peak prior to the start of school was 1800. Last year the top figure was 1760.

Total enrollment to date is 1682, an increase of 143 over last year at this time. The increase is due to more winter residents returning to Palm Springs sooner than usual, and also to new students, Dr. Hoff said.

Enrollment comparisons at each school follow—(1953 first):
Cahuilla 308, 243; Cathedral City 174, 164; Desert Hot Springs 97, 84; Katherine Finchy 212, 210; Frances Stevens 231, 232; Thousand Palms 15, 9; Nellie Coffman 234, 214; High school 411, 383.

Total enrollment on the first day of school September 9 was 1413.

Not Human

Investigation of Grave is Ended

Investigation of bones found in a shallow grave at Thousand Palms came to an end Friday.

Sheriff Joe Rice's deputies found that the bones were not human.

What mystified the deputies who conducted the investigation and found animal bones was the presence of newspapers, dated 1949, in the grave.

Harry Cree, Kin of Villager, Dies

Harry Cree, former Riverside county seat newspaperman and city official there, died at the age of 81 at his home in Riverside Thursday.

He had been ill for some time.

Mr. Cree retired as editor of the Riverside Press-Enterprise in 1949 but remained active in civic duties at the county seat. He was formerly city clerk at Riverside.

Last rites were said for Mr. Cree at Riverside Saturday.

Among the survivors is Raymond Cree, well known Villager, a brother.

Knights of Columbus Rally at Dinner Event at Church

Palm Springs Knights of Columbus last week paid tribute to Christopher Columbus at a dinner meeting at St. Theresa's with a large gathering present in the room, decorated with the colors of the Order. Dancing followed the dinner hour.

The Rev. William Clavin, chaplain of the local council, presented a short talk on the life of Columbus, his trials and triumphs and how they can be applied to life today.

Past District Deputy Arnold Chergois of Coachella Council, was the speaker of the evening describing the founding of the Knights of Columbus and how the organization developed into the Order as it is today.

Robert Rech, Grand night of the Palm Springs Council was master of ceremonies and after the talk by Chergois, presented the latter with a gift on behalf of the local group, in appreciation for his efforts in forming the local council.

Committee in charge of the Columbus Day celebration was Thomas Selma, chairman, Howard Haddock, William Welch. The dinner was prepared by Mrs. Peggy Larstead and Mrs. John Kirby.

No Damage in Fire in Pile of Lumber

Firemen from Station No. 2 answered a call for a lumber trash fire which got out of control in the open area at the rear of Palm Springs Biltmore Hotel, about 11 a. m., Thursday. No damage was reported.

Just Citizens

No Uniforms While on Outside Jobs—

Sheriff Joe Rice issued an order Thursday that hereafter deputies, "while engaged in outside employment" shall not wear their uniforms.

Outside duties, it was explained, includes patrolling private property such as drive-in theaters and construction jobs.

Any arrest made while on private duty will be made under the authority as a private citizen, not a peace officer, he said.

First Visitors

Santa Anas See Local Canyons

First visitors to Palm and Andreas Canyons on their opening day Thursday were Miss Laura Hansen and Mrs. Ruth Evans of Santa Ana, who are visiting in the Village, Indian Agent Ned Mitchell reported.

Miss Hansen and Mrs. Evans were at the toll gate before it officially opened at 9 a. m.

The canyons, one of the most popular tourist attraction places in the area, will remain open daily until next Summer.

Thief Seeks Fish from Pond in Yard

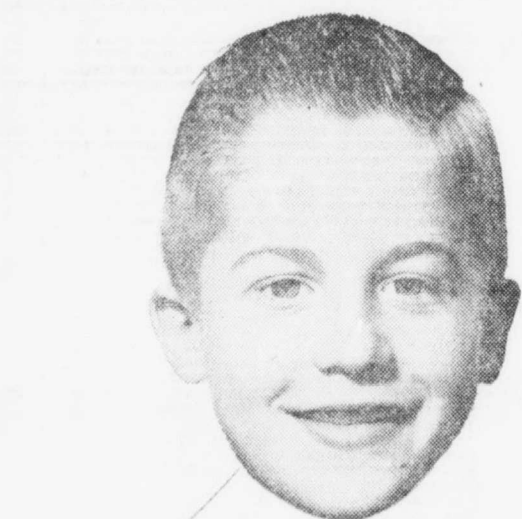

Mrs. Frances Wilson, 470 Chino drive, reported to police that someone had broken pottery containers outside her home, and had tried to remove fish from the fish pond.

There were so many... there isn't space to name more than a very few... Mary Hurrell is back and looking beautiful... She was with Jimmy Morton and the Howard Morris... In one of the larger groups were Alice and Dick Grant, Lee Anderson, John Gillam, Ruth Lewis, Eddie Grainger, Yole Napier and George Cameron... Fran Blish and her houseguest Mrs. Hubbard were with Eleanor Kane and Bob Campbell... Elaine Childs Elser was in Charles De Thomme's party... The Dewey Metzger, the Bob Metzger, Murie Fulton and her niece June Shields... Zaddie Bunker... Helen and Jack Kenaston... and just about everyone from the Lloyd party...

Chi Chi luncheon scene... The Morris Teitlebaums (he's the labor relations consultant) and three of their six children lunching en famille... Recently arrived from their New Rochelle New York home... they are established in their seven-bedroom home in the South part of town... in the original Joe Schenck estate... Martha James stopped by their table and said jokingly... "I'm going to have to sell you a hotel... if your family grows much more"... Better get to work on that one, Martha... an addition is expected... Even so, I think they'll have enough room at their New Rochelle home... as it's a 14-room house...

Ed and Lorraine Hogan were in Los Angeles over the week end... and attended the big cocktail party given by Nancy Heinz Russell... The 150 guests received an invitation in the form of a "Help Wanted" ad...

Roma Marvin's many friends, who remember the beautiful shop she had in The Center for several seasons... will be pleased to hear... that Roma will manage the swank Diane Handknit shop this Winter.

Ask City Pound Use for Strays in Desert Area

At the request of the Cathedral City chamber of commerce Supervisor Homer Varner has started a study of the stray dog and cat situation in the unincorporated areas of Coachella Valley.

The Cathedral City group proposed that the county pay the Palm Springs and Indio dog pounds to care for strays from the desert area.

Palm Springs and Indio have the only two dog pounds in the Coachella Valley and the county has no facilities of its own. Varner will report on his findings to the board of supervisors at an early date.

Dr. Hoff Attends School Meetings

Dr. Arthur Hoff, schools superintendent, will attend the annual meetings of the California Association of School Administrators October 19 through 23, in San Jose.

Today, Monday he will be a member of a panel discussing induction of new school board members, at a Trustees Association meeting.

Sgt. Poe Busy with Lectures on Safety

Sgt. Howard Poe, in charge of traffic detail of the Palm Springs police department, delivered five safety talks at Palm Springs schools last week, talking on bicycle safety at Cahuilla and Katherine Finchy schools, and on driving safety before the three driver education classes at the high school.
